

Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst
German Academic Exchange Service

Call for applications

PhD Proposal Writing Workshop on May 28, 2026, in Dar es Salaam

For individuals seeking to prepare an application for a DAAD PhD scholarship to Germany

Requirements

Copy of Master's degree (< 6 years)

Research abstract (max. 400 words) in Word format—must contain name, title of abstract, problem statement, objec-

At which German university/ research institute the PhD is intended to be pursued or contact of supervisor

Expectations of the workshop (max. 5 sentences)

Application process:

Email the above documents to

Anja Bengelstorff via bengelstorff@daad.de

Benefits

- * Free of charge
- * Training offered by highly experienced DAAD Alumni
- * Open to applicants from all academic fields
- * Study and research grant

Participants cater for their transport and accommodation

What to expect:

- * How to structure a research proposal in your respective academic field
- * How to identify a research gap
- * How to formulate your research question(s)
- * How to prepare a DAAD scholarship application to pursue a PhD in Germany
- * How to find a supervisor/ university in Germany
- * How to apply the ethics of scientific writing
- * How to use online resources

Application deadline: May 4, 2026

Only complete applications can be considered. Successful applicants will be notified by May 12, 2026.

We urge prospective scholarship applicants to consider their participation in this workshop.

Attending the workshop is NOT a requirement for a scholarship application!

Learn more on DAAD PhD scholarship programmes through the scholarship database: funding-guide.de